

Most Influential Paper over the Decade Award

This award is given to the authors of papers that were presented at IAPR MVA 2007 and have been recognized as having the most significant influence on machine vision technologies over the subsequent decade. MVA 2017 Most Influential Paper over the Decade Award is presented to the following two papers.

“One Fish, Two Fish, Butterfish, Trumpeter: Recognizing Fish in Underwater Video”

Andrew Rova, Greg Mori, and Lawrence M. Dill

“A Video Motion Capture System for Interactive Games”

Ryuzo Okada, Nobuhiro Kondoh, and Bjorn Stenger

Award Committee Chairs

Yasuyo Kita (AIST)

Johji Tajima (Nagoya City University)

Award Committee Members

Aurélio Campilho (Universidade do Porto)

Hiroshi Ishikawa (Waseda University)

Hideo Saito (Keio University)

Yoichi Sato (The University of Tokyo)

Bryan Scotney (Ulster University)

Noriko Shimomura (Nissan)

Norimichi Ukita (Toyota Technological Institute)

Ming-Hsuan Yang (University of California at Merced)